

ANN M. MORGAN

15575 Spectrum Dr, #2710. Addison, TX. 75001
(281) 960-1353 – morgan.ann@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Guide faculty in the pedagogically-sound development of their courses and teaching activities. Organize workshops and training in course-design, new educational tools and approaches to learning. Support faculty growth, creativity, collaboration, and research in higher education.

KEY COMPETENCIES

9+ years teaching experience
Instructional Design expertise
Strong written and oral communication skills
Highly organized and deadline-driven
Project management experience

Knowledge of learning theory
Collaborative professional outreach
Experience in Web and graphic design
Conference and event planning
Evidence-based analysis and assessment

EDUCATION

MASTER OF EDUCATION (M.Ed.) from University of Arkansas (anticipated May, 2018). Specialization: Educational Technology.

DOCTORATE IN CLASSICS (Ph.D) from the University of Texas at Austin (2008-2014). Specialization: Classical Archaeology.

MASTER OF ARTS (M.A) from the University of Texas at Austin (2006-2008). Specialization: Latin.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (B.A. with Honors) from Indiana University, Blooming (2003-2005). Specialization: Latin and Classical Archaeology. Phi Beta Kappa.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

UPPER SCHOOL LATIN TEACH
Parish Episcopal School

2017 to present
Dallas, TX

Developed curriculum, unit maps, formative and summative assessments that conform to standards of competency-based education. Creating a technology strategic plan for the creation, and management of rubrics in competency-based education.

Created innovative new assignments and activities, including a Roman Memorial activity, a multi-media timeline for Caesar's Gallic War, and the use of Hypothes.is to manage AP Latin translations.

Prepared a strategic two-year plan regarding the creation and integration of rubrics into competency-based education. Conducted a needs assessment, survey, interviews, and evaluation of current practices.

VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
Trinity University

2016 to present
San Antonio, TX

Courses taught: Latin, Mythology, Ancient Athletics

Designed a new course on Ancient Athletics with substantial digital humanities and community engagement components. Worked in collaboration with departments at Trinity and UTSA.

Attended workshops for innovative pedagogies at the on-campus Collaborative for Learning & Teaching. Course activities designed for mobile and interactive learning outside of the classroom.

Presented research at Archaeological Institute of America Annual Meeting (Toronto, Jan 2017).
Gave community presentations at Athens v. Sparta performance (Austin, 2016), Texas State Junior Classical League (San Antonio, 2017).

ONLINE COURSE DEVELOPER

2013-2016

University of Texas at Austin

Austin, TX

Collaborated with Professor Jennifer Ebbeler on the redesign of her Roman history lecture course from a face-to-face, to a hybrid to a fully online course.

Developed promotional material for course including designing course website, collaborating with Media staff on promotional trailer, creating email notifications and print flyers.

Designed and developed overall course structure and modules based on Mastery learning taxonomy. Developed learning activities including collaboration with IT staff on course animations and short interactive games. Implemented course assessments and long term evaluative measures.

VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

2014-2015

College of William & Mary

Williamsburg, VA

Regularly integrated technology into classroom activities, including social media assignments and online mapping. Coordinated with 2 students of NEH grant for interactive Roman history game.

Presented at Archaeological Institute of America (New Orleans, 2015), Austin College (2015), and a graduate seminar (UNC-Chapel Hill, 2014).

Courses taught: Roman Life in Turkey, Greek Tragedy, Classical Mythology, Ancient Epic, Roman Archaeology, and Ancient Athletics

REFERENCES

TIM O'SULLIVAN (Trinity University) Professor and Chair of Classical Studies. (210) 999-7658.
tosulliv@trinity.edu

MOLLY SWETNAM-BURLAND (College of William & Mary) Associate Professor, Classical Studies. (757) 221-
2164. mswetnam@wm.edu

DENNIS BECK (University of Arkansas) Associate Professor, College of Education. (479) 575-3342.
debeck@uark.edu